NO WONDER WE ARE LOSING

"THE HOUR IS A QUARTER BEFORE MIDNIGHT"

-General George E. Stratemeyer

By Dr. Granville E. Knight
Santa Monica, Calif.

Back in 1928 Judge Brandeis stated a truism which we would all do well to commit to memory and to ponder daily. It was this:

"Experience teaches us to be most on our guard to protect liberty when the government's purposes are beneficial."

We Americans are a gullible people. We are generous to a fault; we believe in fair play; we have always been charitable; we sympathize with and attempt to help the less fortunate and the underdog. These traits are admirable, but lend themselves to exploitation by those who are amoral, ruthless and bent upon our destruction.

In the name of humanity, we are constantly being urged to surrender our individual freedom to an all-powerful federal government and through United Nations agencies to support ourselves and the world through the glittering but empty mechanism of the "welfare state."

There are all too many who still question the fact that the United States and the remaining free world are in the most serious jeopardy. There are all too many who still laugh at the timetable of communist world conquest, which has been advanced from 1975 to 1967. There are the ignorant, the brainwashed or the timid, who spend their time playing golf, bridge or poker and watching television when they should be learning the facts of life and acting accordingly. These are the ones who accept what they hear and read without question—sometimes because they do not want to be upset by unpleasant facts. May God help them and all of us!

There are all too many who do not ask themselves questions like these:

1. Who prevented us from winning the war in Korea—the first war we have ever lost?

2. Why did the United States withhold arms from Chiang Kai-shek and thus permit the communist to take over free China?

3. Why did we not come to the aid of noble Finland when she was attacked by the Russian Bear?

4. Why, at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam—through executive agreements—did we betray Latvia, Estonia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Rumania and Albania—as well as East Germany and North Korea?

5. Why did we not recognize free Hungary after their successful revolution, before the Russians brought in their Mongol troops to murder a free people?

6. Why did our State Department permit arms to be sent to Castro while withholding them from Batista?

7. Why did our State Department lend moral support to the student riots in Turkey and South Korea which overthrew anti-communist governments?

8. Why do we recognize and support the communist government of Sukarno in Indonesia and then give him a royal welcome in the United States?

9. Why have we entertained the mass murderers Mikoyan and Khrushchev after stating that they would never be received until free elections were held in countries behind the iron curtain?

10. Why do we ignore the extermination of the brave Tibetan race by communist Chinese?

11. Why do we continue to give away billions of dollars abroad to provide factories which produce goods to undersell us in world markets; and to support socialist and communist governments, which might otherwise be overthrown?

12. Why did we join the Organization of American States in sanctions against the anti-communist Dominican Republic, while giving communist Castro a mere slap on the wrist?

Why are we so stupid as to dig our own graves and ask for a concentration camp or a "peaceful bullet" fired from a "peaceful gun" into the back of our idiotic heads? The answer is complicated, but available to those with inquiring minds and the willingness to learn.

We have been thoroughly and expertly brainwashed. We have become soft through good living. We have lost the ability to distinguish between what is essential for our own survival as a nation and what we are told the world may think of us. We have forgotten that we should support our government and not ask that the government support us. We have lost our belief in fundamental principles. We have become amoral and irreligious. We have lost our independence of thought and action in the expectation that "Big Brother" will take care of us. We depend upon military alliances to protect us, instead of protecting ourselves. We tremble in fear of atomic annihilation and are told that surrender is the only alternative to an atomic war—forgetting that we have millions of allies in the slave states just waiting for the chance to revolt, if we will only come to their aid.

And so we sit, like a rabbit hypnotized by a snake, as the communist plan for world conquest continues to gain momentum.

Lenin said: "First we will take eastern Europe; next the masses of Asia, and finally we will encircle the last bastion of Capitalism, the United States. We will not have to attack; she will fall like an overripe fruit into our hands."

Like Pavlovian dogs we "sit and wait for the dropt curtain and the closing gate."

General George Stratemeyer remarked several years ago that "the hour is a quarter before midnight." And General George Van Horn Moseley—in speaking of the decline of our Republic—aptly stated: "Historians of the future will marvel most of all at the non-resistance of those who had the most to lose."

Our country can still be saved, but only through the combined efforts of aroused citizens!

What does it take to awaken the living dead?

Calling All Patriots

Mongrelization of this nation will commence with the passage of any of the bills now before the Congress designed to break down the immigration barriers set up by the McCarran-Walter Act!

FACTS: The International Treason Trust seeks to force passage of the Hart Bill (S. 747) and the Kennedy-Johnson Bill (S. 1932 and H. R. 7700). Either of these bills would replace the present McCarran-Walter Law which protects us against the indiscriminate admission of hordes of people of every race and color and religion. It would triple the number of immigrants now allowed, at a time when we have millions of unemployed. It would result in international "integration," aggravating the existing race war and resulting in making us a race of mongrels in the foreseeable future.

The forces behind this are sufficiently strong and well financed to secure the backing of a majority in Congress and of the Executive himself.

TIME IS SHORT! Responsible patriotic members of Congress have told us that unless overwhelming public protests reach the members of both House and Senate within thirty days, one of these bills is certain to pass.

"Justice" — Gen. Walker & Landis

LANDIS — Dean at Harvard

James Landis, former adviser to FDR, Harry Truman and John Kennedy was sentenced to thirty days for a three year failure to report his $300,000 Income Tax. Landis spent his first week in federal custody at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital on Staten Island, N.Y. and his last 3 weeks of "prison" were spent in a PRIVATE $48.00 a day room at Harkness Pavilion, Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center, N.Y.C. Landis was technically under the custody of James Bennett, Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. However, ALL calls concerning Landis were referred to Edwin Guthman and Jack Rosenthal of the Justice Department public information office. Landis was also the former Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and former Dean of Harvard Law School. In a radio newscast over Station WOR (N.Y.C.), Landis was reported to have been under intermittent psychiatric treatment since 1946.

WALKER — General of the Army

By comparison, General Edwin A Walker was detained at a military roadblock about three miles from Oxford, Miss., and taken into custody by military personnel. He was then transferred to the custody of United States Marshals and taken to the Federal Building in Oxford, where Gen. Walker WAIVED a hearing and bond was set at $100,000. Within three hours, Gen. Walker was removed to the Federal Hospital for Criminal Insane, Springfield, Mo. by the telegraphic order of the Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, James Bennett. Judge Claude Clayton signed a court order (Oct. 2, 1962) committing Gen. Walker for psychiatric observation. His change of status to a MENTAL patient was based solely on the evaluation (from newspaper and radio reports) by the U.S. Government's Chief Psychiatrist, the Russian Jew, Dr. Charles E. Smith (KANTER). Dr. Smith was subsequently cleared by his colleagues from any charges of incompetence in regards to his long-range diagnosis. The collateral necessary to cover Gen. Walker's bond was available from at least 3 sources on Oct. 1st, but was not accepted until Oct. 6th—after six days imprisonment in a maximum security cell (private room). On Jan. 21, 1963, ALL charges were dismissed against Gen. Walker by the U.S. Government.

The New President

Republished from—

Jewish Chronicle, Nov. 29, 1963

From Murray Frank — Washington
PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON, 55, President Kennedy's successor, has on many occasions evinced a warm friendship for the Jewish people and has given unqualified support to Israel at crucial times when the State has needed it most.

Throughout his public career, extending over nearly three decades, Johnson has staunchly espoused Israel's cause at times when the State's popularity has been at a low ebb in oil-conscious Texas, where he was formerly Senator. In the '40s he supported Jewish aspirations to Statehood. He fought for increased financial assistance to Israel under the Foreign Aid Programme to assist the State during its critical difficulties of the 1950s. He was instrumental in preventing the adoption of economic sanctions against Israel by the United States during the 1956 Suez crisis.

Later in the 1950s Johnson vigorously exerted his influence to obtain Congressional approval for the release of several million Israeli pounds, which had accumulated under the U.S.A. Information Media Guarantee Programme, to enable Israel to use these funds for health, educational and cultural purposes. In 1960 he proved a most powerful force in securing an economic freedom provision in the Mutual Security Act, its object being to nullify the Arab boycott of Israel.

General Edwin A. Walker

Mr. Johnson has always preferred to work behind the scenes, where he could hope for a greater degree of success. On the occasions when he has exerted influence on Israel's behalf he has done so in the conviction that Israel's cause is just. His most outstanding pro-Israel initiative, one that endeared him in the hearts of Jews everywhere, was mounted in February, 1957. This was during the later stages of the Suez crisis, when Washington was seriously considering economic sanctions against Israel unless Israeli forces were withdrawn from the Gaza Strip and Akaba Gulf area.

On February 11, 1957, he wrote to the late Secretary of State, Mr. Dulles, informing him that he was disturbed to note that sanctions against Israel were being contemplated and stating his opinion that such a move would be most unwise. In the course of the letter he wrote: "I have, as you know, been urging, during the discussion of the Middle East, that a determined effort should be made by the United Nations and by the United States to go to the root causes of the troubles in the Middle East. One of these causes has been the hostile activity against Israel on the part of Egypt from the Gaza Strip and the threat of activity in the Gulf of Akaba."

"I think you will agree that it is not utterly unreasonable for Israel to request guarantees by the United Nations that these attacks against her will not once more be prevalent once she has withdrawn her troops from these two areas. Yet I have seen no suggestion in the United Nations that economic sanctions should be applied against Egypt to force that State to agree to the permanent cessation of hostile activities from those areas."

Johnson's letter to Dulles concluded with these words: "But the merits, the justice and the morality in this situation are clear against such imposition of economic sanctions. It is my hope that you will instruct the American delegation to the United Nations to oppose with all its skill such a proposal if it is formally made."

Johnson, who was then the majority leader in the Senate, frankly told President Eisenhower that the Senate would not approve such punitive measures against Israel. He stressed that what was needed in the area was a just peace and that the contemplated method of settlement constituted coercion against Israel. To his colleagues in the Senate he blamed Egypt for maintaining a state of war with Israel and implementing it with guerrilla raids, blockades, boycott and the exercise of belligerent rights which had resulted in military counter-action by Israel. His efforts proved successful. Washington did not proceed with its threat of sanctions.

MUTUAL SECURITY

Mr. Johnson also played a conspicuous part in the Senate struggle in the spring of 1960 when an attempt was made to nullify a freedom-of-the-seas amendment to the Mutual Security Act. The amendment proposed that the U.S.A. aid be denied to Egypt if she continued to refuse transit through the Suez Canal to Israeli shipping. Johnson threw his full support behind the amendment, which was passed by 45 votes to 39.

Johnson will most probably be a presidential candidate for re-election next year and he will need the support of New York and other centres. As a practical politician he cannot afford to antagonise the Jewish vote. Whether for geographical or other reasons, Johnson's liberalism is not generally understood. Someone once described him as "realistic liberal." Johnson prefers to describe himself as "prudent and progressive." In the South he is still labelled "Roosevelt Liberal," presumably this goes back to 1937 when he first went to Congress listed as a "New Dealer" and was singled out by President Roosevelt for special notice.

BROKE STALEMATE

It is common knowledge that but for Johnson's efforts there would have been no Civil Rights Act in 1957 or 1960. He was instrumental in breaking the stalemate over civil rights legislation that had lasted for 82 years.

As Vice-President he often addressed Jewish gatherings, including the B'nai B'rith and Zionist groups. As a result he became very popular with Jewish organisations and well liked among the Jewish masses. Johnson has many Jewish friends and several Jewish aides who worked with him when he held Senate leadership, among them Gerald Siegal, Solis Horwitz and Benjamin Cohen, a former member of the United States delegation to the U.N.

Mrs. Johnson, "Lady Bird," shares her husband's warm regard for Israel and the Jewish people. When chosen recently to be the patron of an Israel Bond gathering in Washington she was attacked for accepting the invitation by the Iraqi charge d'affaires. Mrs. Johnson not only did not withdraw but sent the Arab diplomat a strong note condemning his interference in American affairs.

"Brotherhood" Backfires

Letters to the Editor column of the London (England) Jewish Chronicle, Feb. 23, 1964:—
JEWISH LAW WAS "VIOLATED"

Sir:

I must register my amazement at the item printed in your last week's issue reporting that the Roman Catholic Bishop of Jamaica spoke from the pulpit of the Shaare Shalom Synagogue of Kingston.

However well intentioned be the motive of the rabbi of the Kingston synagogue in encouraging closer relations between Catholic and Jew, does he really believe such results can be achieved by such an innovation which, apart from being a violation of Jewish law, is at the same time a logical absurdity? For however eloquently Jewish or Gentile apologists may plead that the Jew and the Christian really worship the same God, such a declaration is utterly false and misleading.

The truth is that we acknowledge entirely irreconcilable deities, and no amount of casuistic thinking can effect an identity between them. The trinitarian doctrines of Christianity are diametrically opposed to the glorious and perfect unity of the God of Israel, which is an indispensable attribute of the Jewish faith. The rejection, by the Christian Church, of the Old Testament in favour of a "new" religion and saviour, strikes at the very basis of the Jewish credo which declares in Maimonides' 13 Principles of Faith that "this Torah of ours will never be altered, nor will there ever arise another Torah or teaching from the Creator, blessed be His name."

It is for such reason that I strongly deprecate all such forms of religious, as opposed to social, experiments at artificial fraternisation as being dishonest and harmful attempts to achieve a forced identity of spiritual aims which has no basis in reality.

They Said It Not Us

YOU WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT, IF IT CAME FROM US . . . SO WE LEAVE IT TO THE JEWS THEMSELVES TO SPEAK.

"There is no further doubt that the influence of the Jews today justifies a very careful scrutiny, and cannot possibly be viewed without serious alarm." page 8

—Dr. Oscar Levy, in a preface to a book by Mr. G. R. Pitt-Rivers. The World Significance of the Russian Revolution.

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism at many points are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism."

—The Jewish Chronicle, April 4th, 1919.

"The general causes of anti-semitism have always been the fault of the Jews themselves and not the fault of those who have opposed them . . . With his disposition and his tendencies it is inevitable that the Jew plays a part in revolutions."

—Bernard Lazare, the Jewish author of "Anti-Semitism, its History and Causes." 1894.

"We, the Jews, are a people—One people . . . When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of a revolutionary party; when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse."

"Let us all recognise that we Jews are a distinct nationality of which every Jew, whatever his country, his station or shade of belief, is necessarily a member." . . . "Organize, organize, organize, until every Jew must stand up and be counted—counted with us, or prove himself, wittingly or unwittingly, of the few who are against their own people."

—Louis D. Brandeis, the Jewish judge of the United States Supreme Court of Justice, in a book entitled Zionism pp 113 and 114. Quoted in The International Jew, vol 1 p. 54.

... "For this war is in its essence a stage merely in an immense revolution in which the war of 1914, the Russian Revolution and the counter-revolution on the Continent are earlier phases."

—Harold Laski, in The New Statesman and Nation, July 11, 1942.

Since the Russian "Revolution" was merely the Jewish conquest of that country, it follows from Laski's statement that the two wars and the Nazi "counter-revolution" were also planned and carried out by the Jewish nation. The statement endorses the Protocols, and absolves Hitler.

PATRIOTIC AMERICANS!

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise said at the American Jewish Congress on June 12, 1938:

"American Jews must not make the tragic mistake that the German Jews made in pretending to be German and not Jews. I am not an American of Jewish faith. I am a Jew. I am an American and have been an American for 60 years, but I have been a Jew for 4,000 years. Hitler was right in one thing. He calls the Jews a race and we are a race."

"Freedom" under the U. N.

According to the United States constitution only Congress has the right to declare war. At least that used to be true but not any more. In 1945 the Senate of the United States ratified the United Nations Charter as a treaty obligation. This act deprived all citizens of this nation of all their constitutional rights and privileges. The United States Supreme Court has declared that Treaty Law supersedes Constitutional Law. Thus, American boys were sent to fight in Korea, not under the American flag, but under the United Nations Banner.

After the armistice the red Chinese admitted they still held 988 American soldiers prisoner. Many have died in communist slave camps but 463 of our service men are still there today. What is our government doing to get them released? Nothing! Why not? Because legally these men are no longer American soldiers—they are United Nations soldiers. As such they have been deprived of the most fundamental right of free men—the protection of their own constitution.

How much longer will the American people stand idly by while their constitutional rights and freedoms are bartered away through secret treaties and United Nations commitments made without their knowledge or consent?

Communist Cells in C.I.A.

By Our European Correspondent

From the Vienna daily "Wiener Kurier" from March 3, 1964 we glean the following interesting item: (page 2)

"Reliable sources have it that the Soviets have succeeded in infiltrating the foreign section of a U. S. Secret Service organization known as the C.I.A. and planting several "cells" into this organization. The same source claims that this has been revealed through a former Soviet NKVD agent, N. Goleniewski, who recently "chose freedom" in the West and asked for asylum in the German Federal Republic. According to western Intelligence sources, Goleniewski, offered reliable proof for his assertions and named names. Among the many, for the free West exceedingly disturbing items, asserted by Goleniewski about communist espionage activities on the level of government departments, the following seems the gravest namely; Goleniewski allegedly gave definite information that very recently about one million U. S. dollars (cash) out of the American budget for the C.I.A. found its way through secret channels into the hands of the Soviet Secret Service—and this here in Vienna, Austria."

Commentary: And why not in Vienna, dear folks? There's more than just wine and music to this meeting and exchange place for West and East. Just remember that this lovely musical burg was the fountainhead for the delux air transport program "Reds to the U.S.A." in 1956. Your correspondent knows for a fact that Vienna U. S. Consular Authorities had been warned again and again in November and October 1956 (the short period the freedom fighters had the upper hand in Hungary) that the "refugees" lined up outside the U. S. passport office waiting for delux airlift to the U.S.A. (at taxpayer's expense) were in the majority red Jewish officials of the just overthrown communist regime.

The transportation for these reds was even speeded up after a delegation of orthodox rabbis called at the U. S. consular offices in full dress "to beseech the U. S. authorities in the name of humanity to save their brothers from persecution and death." This was attended by all publicity trimmings from the local press and TV. Acting U. S. consul Strauss (a Jew) must have been mighty proud about the hoax he helped put over so magnificently. There was no more airlift to the U. S. for refugees by the time Soviet tanks mashed freedom once more into the ground, and the real freedom fighters came as refugees to Vienna. These (for lack of rabbinical intervention?) were put into stinking camps and a great number of them are still there. I'd say, the 64 dollar question is: When and where did Jews and their rabbis ever participate in an uprising against communist rule? Up today we've always seen and heard it the other way around.

RABBI SAYS 36 JEWS RULE JEWISH WORLD

A single sentence near the end of a long, rambling column in the Los Angeles B'nai B'rith Messenger of October 25, 1957, is more thought provoking than many a book. The columnist, "Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, Ph.D., Temple Beth Israel, Sierra Madre, California," writes:

"According to Jewish tradition the universe, our world, survives because of the 36 righteous men (Lamed-Vovnic) who are hidden so that no one knows about them."

Rabbi Steckel added that he was "deeply convinced" that a certain Swedish Jew, Raoul Wallenberg, now dead, was one of them. Wallenberg may have been a Communist, as he was taken to the Soviet Union after the war and never was heard of again, till, ten years later, the Soviet said he had died in 1947.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE —THAT IS THE QUESTION

We are compelled by circumstances beyond our control, and which we keenly regret, to inform subscribers of Common Sense that it is no longer possible to continue publication unless the $1.00 subscription rate is increased to cover the bare costs incurred in publishing twenty-two issues annually without advertising revenue, the life-blood of any newspaper.

This rate was established by the late Conde McGinley nineteen years ago when he founded the paper. He knew at the time the subscription rate would not cover the cost of publishing Common Sense but he wanted to reach the grass-roots with his message.

Conde McGinley founded Common Sense with his own money, salvaged from his chain of drive-in restaurants in New Jersey, closed due to the effects of World War II. He hoped that large numbers of subscribers would subsidize the cost of publishing a newspaper without advertising revenue. His personal funds disappeared meeting the monthly deficits. Patriots and friends came to his rescue which enabled Common Sense to continue publication. Without their help Common Sense would have ceased publication long ago. Every item entering into the cost of production has increased; the cost of publishing Common Sense, as well as postage, has doubled, then tripled and finally quadrupled. In spite of increased costs, Conde McGinley held to the original subscription rate.

Common Sense must look to subscribers to meet the cost of publication.

We believe the increased revenue will cover the deficit. The present staff is determined to struggle along as they have done in the past on a bare subsistence level. Volunteer workers reduce Common Sense payrolls, salaries being paid only for unavoidable and necessary workers. That will continue to be the policy of the loyal followers of Conde McGinley. As most readers know, Mr. McGinley never received any salary as editor for over seventeen years.

Common Sense has earned the confidence of sources of information enjoyed by no other publication in the field. Patriotic organizations and publications rely on Common Sense for their information. What will become of the confidential files and library of rare books which enable Common Sense to unmask the communist conspiracy to an extent which worries the enemies within our gates more than words can describe? Common Sense is almost a miracle. The load is getting too heavy for the present staff to carry, and so we turn to our subscribers and to the Lord to solve our problems.

If Common Sense is forced to quit, imagine how its enemies will rejoice. The demise of Common Sense will give birth to the greatest effort the enemies of this nation have ever made to capture the country, lock, stock and barrel. There must be enough loyal patriots in this country willing to pay the $3.00 subscription rate for Common Sense as an insurance premium that this will not happen. That $3.00 will prove the best investment in security and survival for the institution for which the pioneers who carved this country out of a wilderness, gave their lives and their fortunes.

Common Sense is a factor in circulating information which will otherwise never reach the grass-roots of the nation and can prove the "straw that breaks the camel's back." It can also prove a factor in deciding the election of our next President, and our Congress too!

During the past year, since Conde McGinley's death, thousands of subscribers have written to us urging us to increase the $1.00 subscription rate. These letters were from businessmen who understood that Common Sense must soon close its doors unless subscribers supplied the funds to keep it in business. They understood the $1.00 subscription rate covered only a small fraction of the cost of publication. We hope every subscriber will feel the same way about the increase.

Calling All Patriots

SIGNIFICANCE: This is a well organized attack by our enemies, foreign and domestic, to destroy this country as a "NATION UNDER GOD" by atheistic destruction of our Christian Faith, and destruction of our White Race by miscegenation.

They would set aside the ethnic quotas now in effect under the McCarran-Walter Law, letting anybody and everybody into our country on a "first come first served" basis. We would soon be flooded with agents from behind the Iron Curtain; hordes of all races and mixtures of races from everywhere. The Kennedy-Johnson Bill changes immigration from an alien privilege to an alien right. The country is no longer thinly populated. Finding jobs and living room for our normal population increase is difficult enough. This flood of immigrants would make it impossible. The politician who votes for this shows clearly he is irresponsible.

ACTION INDICATED: Most politicians think only in terms of keeping in office. The indignant demands by those who vote them into office, done on a large scale, will show them that the people's votes, not the support and largess of the forces which seek passage of these bills, are the essential elements in keeping their jobs.

(1) Demand of your Senators and Representatives in Congress, by personal visit, telephone, telegraph or letter that he vote against these bills, that you will work and vote against them if they don't.

(2) Get as many other people to do this as you possibly can.

(3) Reproduce this Alert (or order extra copies from us) and mail to as many people as you can.

(4) Demand of the Governor of your State, your Representative in the State legislature, and your Senator in that body that they put pressure on the State's Members of Congress to vote against these bills. These politicians are the ones upon whom you can exert the most direct pressure. They are even more sensitive to your vote than the Congressmen.

(5) Write to: The American Committee On Immigration Policies, The Dodge House, 20 "E" Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20001. They will furnish literature and instructions.

Planned Devaluation of U. S. Dollar

By Our European Correspondent

The red agitator Gunnar Myrdal (Swede) who is responsible for the integration movement was the teacher and is the friend of the Austrian foreign minister Kreisky (a Jew) who is presenting Myrdal's views and program of socialization to the Council of European States in the name of Austria. Not so long ago Kreisky visited Wash. D. C. and had conferences with Rusk and Ball and Myrdal. At the present international Bankers meeting in Vienna, this Jew foreign minister is meeting with Dillon (Lapowski) and the whole Rothschild, Warburg - Lasare Frieres clan of Jew bankers to plan "money policies" on an international scale. It has leaked out that Dillon came over to discuss the secretly planned Devaluation of the U. S. dollar in relation to the European currencies under the slogan to ease and make the world trade more "liquid."

Kreisky is the son of a Jew banker, politically a radical Socialist, who refugeed during WW II to Sweden where, in association with Myrdal, he handled pro-Soviet Help Committees and arranged credits for the Soviet interests abroad.

It seems the International clique deems the time is ripe to knock out another important support from under the U.S.A. by way of getting ready to use Europe's monetary powers, which are stateside represented in the Federal Reserve Bank to beggar the nation definitely and thus, through money pressure bring on a further step towards socialization in the U. S. A. Remember, the emergency measures for the President of the U. S. to take in times of economic crisis (take over of industry—communications—money institutes, etc.) are already at hand, voted by a docile congress as an "if and when" emergency law to add to the Presidential power. They knew only too well why they took their servant Dillon (alleged Republican) into the New Frontier setup. He's their trojan horse in economics since Eisenhower days who knowingly piloted U. S. economics to the spot they are on at this moment.

DISCRIMINATION IS EVERYWHERE
